SIMCA CHILL OUT WEEKEND

We recommend our clients to come and visit the area before the final purchase. Our Chill Out Weekend is a Four-day trip that is designed to allow you to appreciate what the area has to offer, while also showing you the quality of our previous developments. Don't worry about a high-pressure sales pitch—you won't get that here. This trip is to make sure that Simca is the right fit for you.

A four-day, three-night stay costs just 399 USD single or double occupancy. Flight Tickets are not included. Reservations must be done previously to flight booking and are subjected to availability. Prices and conditions can change without previous notification.

We suggest you to get here in a Thursday afternoon and leave in a Sunday morning but it can be adapted. Please let me know when it would be the best dates for you and we will gladly check availability.

DURING YOUR STAY YOU WILL SEE:

- Our previous developments in Cancun, Tulum or Playa Del Carmen areas.
- Simca Corporate Office
- ROI projections
- Buying Process in Mexico
- Happy Address Property and Rental Management Programs
